Chairman & Managing Director

DO No: BSNLCO-A/15(22)/1/2021-ESTAB

Dated: 01.03.2023

Dear CGM,

Attention is invited to the DO letter dated 19.12.2022 from Director(HR) wherein it was desired to take prompt action for execution and conclusion of cases in respect of initiation of departmental action against the JTO's and non-executive employees of BSNL who are unauthorisedly absent continuously and not drawing salary for several years.

It was conveyed to expedite and settle the cases specifically for the cases of more than five years by 15.01.2023. However, I have been informed that many Circles have still not complied with the above directions. The BA-wise details (Annexure-I) with respect to circles is enclosed for perusal.

It is desired that the cases of employees who are "unauthorisedly absent for more than 5 years and deemed to be resigned and unauthorisedly absent for a period of 3 to 5 years must be taken on priority.

The cases of 'unauthorized absence for more than 5 years and deemed to be resigned' must be settled by the 20.03.2023.

You are advised to bestow your personal attention to ensure immediate action in this regard for early compliance which may be reported to this office. The concerned Heads of Units shall be held responsible for monitoring the said cases within prescribed time limit. Further, explanation be called from erring officers and personal responsibility be fixed for non-compliance of this office instructions.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

(P. K Purwar)
