To
CGM, BRBRAITT, Jabalpur

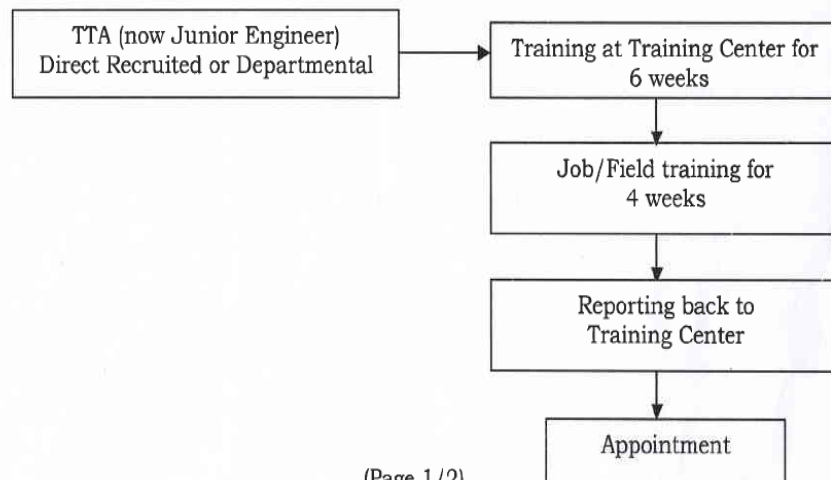

SUB: Revision of TTA (now Junior Engineer) Induction Training structure and syllabus - Approval regarding.

This has reference to this office letter no. 2-2/2007-Trg dated 19th May 2016 and your office letter no. TD-12/5/Coll-II, dated 30th May 2016 on the subject noted above.

2. In this regard, I have been directed to convey the approval of BSNL management as follows:

Existing Training Schedule	Revised Training Schedule
Duration of Induction training for TTA is 10 weeks (5 weeks basic and 5 weeks specialization) at training center. No job / field training.	➤ 6 weeks training at Training Centers -for giving knowledge about BSNL set up & theoretical knowledge about the latest technologies used in BSNL including respective lab sessions. (As per BRBRAITT Lr. No. TD-12/5/Coll-II, dated 30th May 2016 regarding course modules) ➤ 4 weeks job/Field training - to have hands on practice & gain of practical knowledge about working of the equipments. The total duration of the induction training will remain same.

3. The structure of TTA (now Junior Engineer) induction training will hence forth be as below:

4. The following may be noted:

- a) Induction training will be for 6 + 4 weeks common to departmental as well as directly recruited candidates.
- b) After successful completion of 6 weeks training in training centers, only qualified candidates will be given 4 weeks job/field training in the various business verticals.
- c) After successful completion of 4 weeks job/field training, the candidate will report back to the training center along with field reports. Then based on the successful completion of total 10 weeks training, candidate will be appointed as Junior Engineer as per allotted Circle issued by Recruitment Branch of BSNL CO, New Delhi.

5. Detailed syllabus, training plan, administrative guide and hand-outs, etc. may be supplied to all the concerned training centers in time, for timely conduction of the training.

6. The revised training procedure for TTA (now Junior Engineer) as per TTA-RR-2014 induction training will be issued separately.
